

Business Summer School

Locul desfasurarii: Sibiu

Organizator: ASEB si ULBS

Every summer, 40 motivated senior students and young professionals from Romania and abroad discuss about investing in emerging markets with top academics and business professionals from all over the world. Lecturers will focus on the current financial and economic crisis and will go through its effects on the world economy. We invite you to take part in a program that will influence the way you look at the world. Teaching method The uniqueness of BSS in Romania is given by the teaching methodology used - case study based - using relevant case studies published by Harvard Business Review and partner companies. Top speakers Among the confirmed speakers for BSS 2010 you can find: Andrei Hagi - Harvard Business School Hunt Allcott - MIT/NYU Titus Bocseri - Columbia Business School and Vicepresident HSBC New York, Peter McCarthy, Vicepresident JP Morgan Securities, New York Bogdan Ciobotaru, Vicepresident Morgan Stanley, London Dana Denis-Smith, Managing Director Marker Global, London Petru Vaduva, CEO Tiriatic Holdings Make new friends Discussing the global economic crisis over dinner, studying for the final exam with your colleagues, and playing soccer or bowling are only a few of the ways you will get to know other students. They come from all areas around the world. Have a question? Our online details about academics and program dates, application to the program, tuition fee, courses, activities, and more is available on our website: www.businessschool.ro. But if you don't find the information you are looking for here, please feel free to contact us at office@businessschool.ro. You can apply to the BSS online. The application deadline is July 15. Admission decisions are made on a rolling basis and students are advised to apply as early as possible.
